Dear Tonatiuh Matos Chassin,

Congratulations on your induction to Sigma Xi, The Scientific Research Society. Your membership in Sigma Xi demonstrates your excellence as a researcher and your commitment to scientific research. We are pleased to welcome you to this community of distinguished researchers, including 200 Nobel Laureates.

I'd like to remind you that nomination to Sigma Xi membership is an excellent way to recognize the research accomplishments of your colleagues. Please give the enclosed form to a fellow researcher to share the honor of membership in Sigma Xi. Additional copies of the form and membership brochures can be downloaded from the Web site.

Sigma Xi continues to build programs and offer new benefits and services for our members. Enclosed you will find several items that I encourage you to review. In particular, please hold on to Member Resource Guide which lists the many benefits, services and opportunities available to you as a member of Sigma Xi. I encourage you to record your Member ID number (from the card above) on the back of this handbook for easy access to members only online resources and other benefits, including:

- Sigma Xi Exchange
- Full Access To American Scientist Archive Materials
- Science In The News Daily And Weekly
- Scientists' Bookshelf Monthly
- Grants-In-Aid Of Research
- Publication Discounts
- Education Financing
- Sigma Xi Postdoc Survey
- Student Research Conference

Membership in Sigma Xi will offer you benefits, both tangible and intangible, through the years to come. Please visit the Sigma Xi Web site for details on all of Sigma Xi's programs and your benefits and opportunities: www.sigmaxi.org. As always, we encourage you to share your thoughts and suggestions with the staff at memberinfo@sigmaxi.org. Again, thank you for your commitment to Sigma Xi.

Sincerely,

Dr. Patrick D. Sculley, Executive Director
